

6H NESHAP Painter Certification Handbook

Painter Training Acknowledgement

1. BY SIGNING BELOW, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE RECEIVING HANDS-ON AND CLASSROOM TRAINING ON THESE TOPICS:

NESHAP Regulatory Requirements
 Spray Gun Adjustments
 Spray Booth Filters

Spray Gun Selection
 Appropriate Spray Techniques
 Spray Booths & Prep Stations

Spray Gun Set-Up
 Spray Gun Cleaning
 Benefits of Compliance

Training Date	Shop Name
Painter Name	Shop Address
Painter Signature PBE Distributor Name	Email Address

2. LIST THE DETAILS OF THE SPRAY GUNS THAT YOU USE IN THE SHOP

	Spray Gun Manufacturer	Spray Gun Model Number	Type	Max Input PSI
1			<input type="checkbox"/> HVLP
2			<input type="checkbox"/> HVLP
3			<input type="checkbox"/> HVLP

3. CIRCLE YOUR ANSWERS FOR EACH OF THE REVIEW QUESTIONS AT THE END OF THE TRAINING HANDBOOK

Question 1	Question 2	Question 3	Question 4	Question 5
True	True	True	True	True
False	False	False	False	False
Question 6	Question 7	Question 8	Question 9	Question 10
True	True	True	True	True
False	False	False	False	False

4. PROVIDE THIS COMPLETED ACKNOWLEDGMENT FORM TO YOUR MANAGER TO GET YOUR CERTIFICATE

6H NESHAP Painter Certification Handbook

REVIEW QUIZ

Please take this quick quiz and record your answers on the Painter Training Acknowledgement form.

1. NESHAP is the EPA's attempt to reduce Hazardous Air Pollutants (HAPs) emitted by the collision industry.
 True False
2. The distance between the spray gun and the coating surface will not affect transfer efficiency.
 True False
3. HVLP spray guns have at least an 85% transfer efficiency.
 True False
4. Spraying a fully assembled vehicle can be done outdoors if an HVLP spray gun is used.
 True False
5. Air input, fluid flow, and fan adjustment are the main spray gun adjustments that can be made.
 True False
6. A spray gun should never be cleaned by spraying cleaning solvent outside of an enclosed gun washer.
 True False
7. The higher the transfer efficiency of a spray gun, the more HAPs are released into the environment.
 True False
8. Following 6H NESHAP regulations will result in the better health and safety of the employees in the shop.
 True False
9. Mixing only the amount of material needed will reduce paint cost and minimize air pollutants.
 True False
10. 6H NESHAP training requirements and practices apply to any employee who sprays material in the shop
 True False